We brought our Home Challenges to the VSSQ Guild meeting and presented them to the members as well as the accordion books and the beads.

Thank you Linda Kuraoka for making the bead display look wonderful! Also many thanks to Joan Fudge and Linda Ball for setting up the tables for the displays and introducing the work to the Guild. Well done all!

We were warmly received and answered many questions at coffee break.

Over the last two seasons of QuArtz we have explored different ways of embellishing your work. Each month one of the members would talk about and demonstrate a technique. We called these Toolbox Tuesdays. Some of the techniques shown were thread sketching, cording and couching, sun printing, rust dyeing, image transfer, and flower pounding. We were encouraged to try out the technique and then add it to an accordion book. The size and layout were totally up to each member

As you can see by the display the outcomes were beautiful and varied.
